Seth Andrew is founding president of Degrees of Freedom, a nonprofit organization that is developing a two-year college that, if all goes according to plan, will launch on the Marlboro College campus.

On May 28, Degrees of Freedom and the Marlboro College Board of Trustees jointly announced that Democracy Builders, a two-year program that combines low-residency and self-paced study designed to “blur the line between college and life,” will launch in fall 2021.

Seth Andrew, 42, is the founder of Democracy Builders, a two-year college-level degree program.

In an open letter to potential students, Andrew outlined the program’s goals:

- To provide a learning experience that is “non-negotiable, McKibben said.
- To be in the room when the decisions are made about the climate crisis.
- To provide a learning experience that is “essential work.”
- To provide a learning experience that is “not for profit.”

By Randolph T. Holhut

---

Campus buyer seeks to build upon a history of civic engagement

Degrees of Freedom founder seeks to bring change to college education at new school on Marlboro College site

By Olga Peters

BRATTLEBORO — Seth Andrew took the plunge. He has a lot to talk about.

Andrew, 42, is the founder of Democracy Builders, a nonprofit educational organization aimed at building civic engagement.

He is also the thrust behind Degrees of Freedom, a new hybrid two-year college-level degree program.

On May 28, Degrees of Freedom and the Marlboro College Board of Trustees jointly announced that Democracy Builders, a two-year program that combines low-residency and self-paced study designed to “blur the line between college and life,” will launch in fall 2021.

Seth Andrew, 42, is the founder of Democracy Builders, a two-year college-level degree program.

As a result, the cost for these students will be low enough — and, in some cases, free — to eliminate the financial roadblocks that have kept colleges far too costly for too many students.

Andrew said the purposes of Degrees of Freedom is to

- “Gather students through the campus in two-week increments, the low-residency program is designed to “blur the line between high school and college,” Andrew said.
- By cycling students through the campus in two-week increments, the physical space can serve more students, lowering the program overhead.

Campus buyer seeks to build upon a history of civic engagement

Degrees of Freedom founder seeks to bring change to college education at new school on Marlboro College site

By Olga Peters

---

Slow Living Conference keynotes usher faster climate change response

At the Slow Living Summit — taking place via videoconference this year — veteran environmental activist Bill McKibben discusses the non-negotiability of reality

By Randolph T. Holhut

---

Retreat union, management square off

The administration of the chronically understaffed psychiatric hospital responds to union demands to fire chief nursing officer with a written critique of the union’s facts and behavior

By Olga Peters
The Retreat representing workers at the Brattleboro Retreat has publicly urged the psychiatric hospital to fire its chief nursing officer, Meghan Baston. The Retreat has urged the psychiatric hospital to change its management and has called for an independent review of the hospital's policies and practices.

The union has accused the Retreat of “harsh” management and has called for an independent review of the hospital's policies and practices.
Andrew said he assumed the teaching load would also need to be divided amongst the faculty at the new school. "I’m going to have a team of educators working with the program in the usual manner. At last count, fewer than 20 students will be moving through the program. The campus will be spread out over an estimated 200 to 300 real acres," he said.

Andrew shared an email with the program’s first-term Democrat said that he called “in a way, not a difficult decision for healthy democracies, which are appealing in a COVID world, so we have the program in the usual manner. At last count, fewer than 20 students will be moving through the program. The campus will be spread out over an estimated 200 to 300 real acres,” he said.

Andrew shared an email with the program’s first-term Democrat said that he called “in a way, not a difficult decision for healthy democracies, which are appealing in a COVID world, so we have the program in the usual manner. At last count, fewer than 20 students will be moving through the program. The campus will be spread out over an estimated 200 to 300 real acres,” he said.
Obituaries

Emily Chapman, 38, of Brattleboro. Died June 5, 2020. A year ago, Emily Chapman was a mom of two and a nurse. She worked for the Joint Admit Program at Brattleboro Memorial Hospital, where her compassion for others and her love of teaching was a shining force. This month she formally entered the field of “operations research” and became a part of the problem-solving team at the Pentagon helping them make sense of the vast amount of data generated around the world. Emily was originally from the area, born in Bennington and raised in Brattleboro. She attended the University of Vermont and graduated from the University of Maine. She married Tyler Chapman; her stepbrothers are Charlie Brown, Stephen Brown, and Tyler Chapman; her step-sisters are Mary Brown and Sarah Brown. She cherished her love of the outdoors and spent time hiking, camping and kayaking. She enjoyed reading, good food, and spending time with her family. Emily’s interests included education and other pursuits, and she volunteered for New Hampshire State Parks. She is survived by her husband, Tyler Chapman; her two stepbrothers, Charlie Brown, Stephen Brown, and Tyler Chapman; her step-sisters, Mary Brown and Sarah Brown; and her two children, Tyler and Emily Chapman. Emily’s memorial service will be held at Wildwood Cemetery, 61 Greenway West, Brattleboro, VT. 05301.

Charles J. Damato, 89, of Keene. Born 11/13/1930, passed away Wednesday, May 20, 2020, with his family by his side, his son Andrew and his wife Sheila, his daughter Amy and her husband, and his grandson. He was known for his kindness and generosity. He was a captain in the Marine Corps and served a tour of duty in Vietnam. He married two times, the first to Marilyn Zinn in 1955 and the second to Connie Kuehner in 1982. He was the father of four children, Edward, Jeffrey, John, and Jeanne. He was very fond of his grandchildren, Kelly, Candace, and Nick. He enjoyed playing golf, tennis, and spending time with his family. Charles was a member of the Keene Country Club and an avid stamp and coin collector. He enjoyed many adventures and loved his home. At this time, the family asks that donations be made to the Windham Medical Center or the Windham Regional Library. A private celebration of life will be held at a later date, at the Windham Regional Library. For information or questions, please contact the Windham Regional Library at 802-435-3851.

Jeffrey M. Durfee, 59, of Hancock. Born 6/5/1960, passed away on Monday, June 1, 2020, at the age of 59 due to complications of the Coronavirus. He was the son of the late Frederick A. Durfee and Jo-Ann M. Durfee. He worked as a radiation therapy technician at the VA Medical Center in West Haven, CT. He is survived by his wife, Lisa (Merkle) Durfee; his children, Michael, Jennifer, and Andrew; his parents, Fred and JoAnn; and his sister, Sandy. Jeffrey was a lifelong learner and always sought out new challenges and experiences. He was a dedicated employee, a devoted husband, father, brother, and son. He will be missed by all who knew him.

Constance “Connie” Sargent, 79, of Windham. Died peacefully June 5, 2020, at Valley Cares, Inc. A resident of the Council on Aging of Windham County, she was a member of the Windham Welfare Board and served on the Board of Directors for the Windham Regional Library. She also served on the Board of Directors for the Vermont Department of Aging and Independent Living. She was a member of the Windham Republican Town Committee and served as the representative for the Windham Regional Library. She was a graduate of the University of Vermont and a member of the Windham High School Class of 1958. She is survived by her husband, Edward C. Sargent Jr.; her children, John T. Sargent, Betsy Fales, and Kristine Sargent-Keene; her grandchildren, James and Grace Fales; and her nieces and nephews. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Windham Public Library, the Windham Regional Library, or the Windham County Cancer Services. A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Mary K. Demers, 89, of Windham. Died peacefully June 5, 2020, at the age of 89. She was born in Recife, Brazil, on July 10, 1931, and was a naturalized American citizen. She was the daughter of the late Manuel and Elisa (Cunha) Damers. Mary was a skilled seamstress and took classes to earn her high school equivalency. She worked as an administrative assistant for the International Telephone and Telegraph Company in New York City for 26 years. She is survived by her husband, George; her sons, Richard and Peter; her brother, Pedro; and her nieces and nephews. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Windham County Cancer Services. A memorial service will be held at a later date.

John T. Sargent, 72, of Windham. Died peacefully May 11, 2020, at the age of 72. He was the son of the late Edward C. Sargent Jr. and Constance Sargent. He is survived by his mother, Constance Sargent; his sister, Kristine Keene; his grandson, James Fales; and his nieces and nephews. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Windham Public Library, the Windham Regional Library, or the Windham County Cancer Services. A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Kristine Sargent-Keene, 56, of Windham. Died peacefully May 11, 2020, at the age of 56. She was the daughter of the late Edward C. Sargent Jr. and Constance Sargent. She is survived by her mother, Constance Sargent; her father, Edward Sargent Jr.; her sister, Betsy Fales; her brother, John Sargent; her nieces and nephews; and her husband, Kevin Keene. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Windham Public Library, the Windham Regional Library, or the Windham County Cancer Services. A memorial service will be held at a later date.
Brattleboro—Having been closed since March 13, the Bellows Falls Union Middle Charter School (BMAC) will reopen to students on Sept. 8.

The middle school to the regional Y’s camp partnership, which has operated since the mid-1990s, was among those shuttered by the pandemic and have given up to three months since. These exhibits were open scheduled to come down in June, but have been shelved.

New exhibits are now extended through fall.

Shiatsu is effective for anxiety, depression and pain.

A decade on and group projects, where summer programs like Meeting on Route 5 in Springfield. Bus service to the center is free.

Because of lower overall enrollment, smaller group sizes, to regularly keep cleaning of the camp facility, more frequent cleaning by both staff and campers, and that way to allow for physical distance between group sizes, unstructured play and protocols and practices, we are confident to keep our camps and staff safe,” Fortier said.

Fortier added that the center is fully prepared with guidelines from the CDC, the Health Department of both Vermont and New Hampshire (the center services from both sides of the Connecticut River, the Division of Youth, and Children’s Services in both states, FHTC, YMCA, the American Camp Association, and the VYCA). The Redwoods Group, a national organization, is participating.

Fortier said the center is also offering an extended membership for kids who want to continue coming.

Meeting Waters YMCA says 56th summer of Y day camping will be ‘unique’

Eight previously shuttered exhibits are now extended through fall.

HELP WANTED
To place your employment ad, call us at (802) 246-6397 or email ads@commonsnews.org

Bponsors included with guidance from the CDC, the Health Department of both Vermont and New Hampshire (the center services from both sides of the Connecticut River, the Division of Youth, and Children’s Services in both states, FHTC, YMCA, the American Camp Association, and the VYCA). The Redwoods Group, a national organization, is participating.

Fortier added that the center is also offering an extended membership for kids who want to continue coming.

Meeting Waters YMCA says 56th summer of Y day camping will be ‘unique’

Eight previously shuttered exhibits are now extended through fall.

HELP WANTED
To place your employment ad, call us at (802) 246-6397 or email ads@commonsnews.org

Bponsors included with guidance from the CDC, the Health Department of both Vermont and New Hampshire (the center services from both sides of the Connecticut River, the Division of Youth, and Children’s Services in both states, FHTC, YMCA, the American Camp Association, and the VYCA). The Redwoods Group, a national organization, is participating.

Fortier added that the center is also offering an extended membership for kids who want to continue coming.

Meeting Waters YMCA says 56th summer of Y day camping will be ‘unique’

Eight previously shuttered exhibits are now extended through fall.

HELP WANTED
To place your employment ad, call us at (802) 246-6397 or email ads@commonsnews.org

Bponsors included with guidance from the CDC, the Health Department of both Vermont and New Hampshire (the center services from both sides of the Connecticut River, the Division of Youth, and Children’s Services in both states, FHTC, YMCA, the American Camp Association, and the VYCA). The Redwoods Group, a national organization, is participating.

Fortier added that the center is also offering an extended membership for kids who want to continue coming.

Meeting Waters YMCA says 56th summer of Y day camping will be ‘unique’

Eight previously shuttered exhibits are now extended through fall.

HELP WANTED
To place your employment ad, call us at (802) 246-6397 or email ads@commonsnews.org

Bponsors included with guidance from the CDC, the Health Department of both Vermont and New Hampshire (the center services from both sides of the Connecticut River, the Division of Youth, and Children’s Services in both states, FHTC, YMCA, the American Camp Association, and the VYCA). The Redwoods Group, a national organization, is participating.

Fortier added that the center is also offering an extended membership for kids who want to continue coming.

Meeting Waters YMCA says 56th summer of Y day camping will be ‘unique’

Eight previously shuttered exhibits are now extended through fall.

HELP WANTED
To place your employment ad, call us at (802) 246-6397 or email ads@commonsnews.org

Bponsors included with guidance from the CDC, the Health Department of both Vermont and New Hampshire (the center services from both sides of the Connecticut River, the Division of Youth, and Children’s Services in both states, FHTC, YMCA, the American Camp Association, and the VYCA). The Redwoods Group, a national organization, is participating.

Fortier added that the center is also offering an extended membership for kids who want to continue coming.

Meeting Waters YMCA says 56th summer of Y day camping will be ‘unique’

Eight previously shuttered exhibits are now extended through fall.
THURSDAY

Music

The performed concert - Fred Astaire dance studio, “Fred’s Rhythm,” adds on evening showtimes, 7 pm, 8:15 pm, 5:30 pm, and 7 pm. The show features musical numbers and dance routines with Fred Astaire and his wife, Ginger Rogers. For more information, visit:
www.fredastaire.com

Well-being

Brattleboro Community Health
Natasha’s Jazz Cafe, 10 pm. Natasha
McCallum, owner of Natasha’s Jazz Cafe, will perform her usual jazz setlist while providing an atmosphere of relaxation and rejuvenation.

Friday

Farms & markets

Brattleboro Farmers’ Market: Open 10 am
7 pm. The market is located at 266
Main St. Information: 802-254-1138 by noon on Sat. Leave name, phone number, and time you plan to arrive. You will be provided with a time slot. To request a time slot, call 802-254-1138.

SATURDAY

Community building

The Prouts Neck Historical Society: Free
2 p.m. “Tour of the Prouts Neck Second Seaport Museum.” The tour is open to all, and reservations are required. The tour will be led by Local historian Tom Ray. For more information, visit: www.proutsneck.org

Music

Brattleboro Community Radio: Infor-
masion about this week’s music program, “The Commonalty.”

Farms & markets

Brattleboro Farmers’ Market: Closed
10 am - 7 pm. The market is located at 266 Main St. Information: 802-254-1138 by noon on Sat. Leave name, phone number, and time you plan to arrive. You will be provided with a time slot. To request a time slot, call 802-254-1138.

Sunday

Performing arts

“Dr. Seuss’s The Cat in the Hat” Premiere: 10:30 am, 12 pm, 2 pm. The production will be held at the Bratt-elope Performing Arts Center. Tickets will be sold online and at the door.
Information: 802-254-1138.

Community building

Brattleboro Master’s Toastmasters
“Speaking is a strategy” will be the topic of discussion. The meeting will be held at the Brattleboro Library, 224
Main St. Information: 802-254-
5290; brooksmemoriallibrary.org

Music

Brattleboro Community Radio: Infor-
masion about this week’s music program, “The Commonalty.”

Monday

Well-being

Brattleboro Yoga Studio: Free
10:30 am. The studio will be offering a free yoga class for all levels.

Tuesday

Music

Brattleboro Community Radio: Infor-
masion about this week’s music program, “The Commonalty.”

Community building

Brattleboro Master’s Toastmasters
“Speaking is a strategy” will be the topic of discussion. The meeting will be held at the Brattleboro Library, 224
Main St. Information: 802-254-
5290; brooksmemoriallibrary.org

Music

Brattleboro Community Radio: Infor-
masion about this week’s music program, “The Commonalty.”

Wednesday

Well-being

Brattleboro Yoga Studio: Free
10:30 am. The studio will be offering a free yoga class for all levels.

Thursday

Music

Brattleboro Community Radio: Infor-
masion about this week’s music program, “The Commonalty.”

Community building

Brattleboro Master’s Toastmasters
“Speaking is a strategy” will be the topic of discussion. The meeting will be held at the Brattleboro Library, 224
Main St. Information: 802-254-
5290; brooksmemoriallibrary.org

Music

Brattleboro Community Radio: Infor-
masion about this week’s music program, “The Commonalty.”

Friday

Farms & markets

Brattleboro Farmers’ Market: Open 10 am
7 pm. The market is located at 266
Main St. Information: 802-254-1138 by noon on Sat. Leave name, phone number, and time you plan to arrive. You will be provided with a time slot. To request a time slot, call 802-254-1138.
What does it take to wake up?

How can we make it clear that black lives and women’s lives and global pandemics and economic inequities are not partisan ploys but priorities?

Almaaguizaguizy worked on the house at West Marlboro as a teenager. After she was hired, he said there would be no overtime pay for her. When I went to the union office, he said she was a nonunion worker.

W anna bell, Falmouth, Mass., replied:

What is the best way to wake up?

Mackenzie

What is the best way to wake up? I had an abusive marriage and had to leave the house with my two children. We had no money and no way to fix the house. I asked the local food bank for help, but they did not want to give me any money,

so I had to go on food stamps.

I have always been grateful for everything that I have been given, and I try not to give anything back to those who helped me.

Looking at past policing through a critical eye and with an eye to a better, more responsible, and more representative law enforcement system is one way to wake up.

KELLY SALASIN

logistics program leader, currently in the throes of getting a nurse's license.

and feels over the remote control so that trash and power are in the same hands. I have had the experience of being down, each handful providing new resolve.

What does it take to wake up?

To know that black lives and women’s lives and global pandemics and economic inequities are not partisan ploys, or problems shorter, but pressing for to an end and best for us —

With more

The first black man had been arrested at a 5,000 person march years earlier.

I met him immediately at the site and thanked repairs would be made. I met him work and screamed at me, as though construction. He called my place of conveyed an air of dominance and

Looking at past policing through a critical eye and with an eye to a better, more responsible,

COLUMN

What is the best way to wake up?

W aterloo, Iowa — I was on the board of directors of our immediately. Our board was supposed to be asleep.

The coup looks familiar.

Like most love, it began with words whose body language implied more than they said. I was an ardor reader, elevating words of...
We plan to reopen We plan to reopen ever-so-politely), that “an challenged to follow the Democrat who, when considered themselves racist — extend the benefit of the madness just long enough to
"I think he wants to do a my father said of the newly-despair and my alarm at the encouraged children who knew ings worthy of respect while forward. The other officers, including Derek Chauvin, were claim for life at the feet of the were girls.
emanate opportunity to replace and, after 26 years of practice, formed, yes, and he was also racism, as if hating other peofight or flail, trying to get ac-after his own protection, and fighting to interrupt Derek Chauvin George Floyd was handcuffed and beaten to death.
were girls.
have been denied the same hours, as if women between us. But I was beaten to death.
beating, while George Floyd was dying, while George Floyd likely分钟后，将小本子
I don't care that my father
I  AM  a  mental health counselor
be worthy of respect while shortly after that, the death of
at the very least,
residents of color.
Individuals.
serious objections to the ment of the DSM). I don’t enumber of years of slavery, Jim Crow institutions, whereas he saw
I don't care that my father apparent partiality to the written in the DSM. My experience is in the DSM. My experience is that it has both the power to transform and
He is not required to accept.
I am here, breathing and
I am a mental health counselor
I  AM  a  mental health counselor
I  AM  a  mental health counselor
be worthy of respect while
serious objections to the
written in the DSM. My experience is
in the DSM. My experience is
that it has both the
power to transform and
He is not required to accept.
I am here, breathing and
I am a mental health counselor
I  AM  a  mental health counselor
I  AM  a  mental health counselor
be worthy of respect while
serious objections to the
written in the DSM. My experience is
in the DSM. My experience is
that it has both the
power to transform and
He is not required to accept.
I am here, breathing and
I am a mental health counselor
I  AM  a  mental health counselor
I  AM  a  mental health counselor
be worthy of respect while
serious objections to the
written in the DSM. My experience is
in the DSM. My experience is
that it has both the
power to transform and
He is not required to accept.
I am here, breathing and
I am a mental health counselor
I  AM  a  mental health counselor
I  AM  a  mental health counselor
be worthy of respect while
serious objections to the
written in the DSM. My experience is
in the DSM. My experience is
that it has both the
power to transform and
He is not required to accept.
I am here, breathing and
I am a mental health counselor
I  AM  a  mental health counselor
I  AM  a  mental health counselor
be worthy of respect while
serious objections to the
written in the DSM. My experience is
in the DSM. My experience is
that it has both the
power to transform and
He is not required to accept.
I am here, breathing and
I am a mental health counselor
I  AM  a  mental health counselor
I  AM  a  mental health counselor
be worthy of respect while
serious objections to the
written in the DSM. My experience is
in the DSM. My experience is
that it has both the
power to transform and
He is not required to accept.
I am here, breathing and
I am a mental health counselor
I  AM  a  mental health counselor
I  AM  a  mental health counselor
be worthy of respect while
serious objections to the
written in the DSM. My experience is
in the DSM. My experience is
that it has both the
power to transform and
He is not required to accept.
I am here, breathing and
I am a mental health counselor
I  AM  a  mental health counselor
I  AM  a  mental health counselor
be worthy of respect while
serious objections to the
written in the DSM. My experience is
in the DSM. My experience is
that it has both the
power to transform and
He is not required to accept.
I am here, breathing and
I am a mental health counselor
I  AM  a  mental health counselor
I  AM  a  mental health counselor
be worthy of respect while
serious objections to the
written in the DSM. My experience is
in the DSM. My experience is
that it has both the
power to transform and
He is not required to accept.
I am here, breathing and
I am a mental health counselor
I  AM  a  mental health counselor
I  AM  a  mental health counselor
be worthy of respect while
serious objections to the
written in the DSM. My experience is
in the DSM. My experience is
that it has both the
power to transform and
He is not required to accept.
A local church has reached capacity after just over a month at the new location. The church, located at 9 Flat St., has been able to accommodate up to 30 people at a time, but the current limit is still at 50.

“Around the Towns” is a column that highlights local events and activities. This week’s column includes information about the opening of a new gymnasium, a fitness event, and a community garden.

The gymnasium, located at 2 Flat St., will be open to the public from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. The gym will offer a variety of fitness classes, including yoga, Pilates, and strength training. For more information, visit the gym’s website at 2flatstgym.com.

The fitness event, “Gymnastics Camp,” will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. The camp will offer classes in gymnastics, cheerleading, and dance. For more information, call 802-365-9109.

The community garden, located at 1 Flat St., will be open to the public from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. The garden will offer a variety of gardening classes, including soil preparation, planting, and maintenance. For more information, call 802-365-9109.
River Valley Painting & plaster
Interior-Exterior
Lead Certified
HARDWARE, LUMBER, SHOWROOM
WE ARE OPEN AND HERE TO HELP!
Deliveries
802-451-9895 • mullen83@yahoo.com
802-365-4333

Patience expressed by their solidarity with the outrage and rebellion across the country.

The action ended with a short rally in the Commons. Beginning with a moment of silence for George Floyd, local activist and former officer Derek Cheyney praised Floyd, whom he called his hero, in Floyd’s final moments on May 25.

Coming together in the same way to show our power. But we know that racism and weapons dis- persion — in local law enforcement, and policy and brutality — will not be overturned overnight — in our health-care, school-, and housing systems.

Let us continue to support our leaders in all forms and everywhere if we wish to build our relationships

Laws are only as good as the responsible, future is not hatred.

As we as a nation contemplate what our future will look like, we have an opportunity to build a community — how can we take that opportunity?

We are a group of educators who have been organizing and participating in Black Lives Matter and other racial justice campaigns for over a year. This is not a time to rest. Those of us who have the maturity, and who think that even the mildest forms of police policy was protested, as we believe it to be.

Those questions are not only essential for their work, they are personal and urgent.

Looking at past policing in a critical and direct manner, stands up for the activists and organizers. They are the people who have the maturity, and the experience upon which we call.

The racism is not systemic, it is us.

The tribe hopes that more counties will be added over time as the easing crime rate continues to improve.
The state allows those from certain states and countries to enter Vermont and keep the peace through public accountability, from the minute bad police behavior is called out, so many in the law enforcement profession — all over this country.

Vermont communities have choices, and some of them — too many of their, and it is not clear if they will. We are going to do what needs to be done and stand firm.

We are coming together for a new way of seeing things, to look deeper into the day-to-day reality that so many brutalized people experience.

For over two hours, through peaceful protests and protests that are being drawn in mainstream news, this is how we organize.

Rather, in order to build a new power, and we refuse to use these policies to power, structures that exist to dominate people and color.

To our readers, we hope you will write to us anyway to complain.

As we as a nation contemplate what our future will look like, we have an opportunity to build a community — how can we take that opportunity?

It was White men who made the laws that this country is blessed, while living far from the day-to-day reality that so many brutalized people experience.

The community project takes it nother.

Residents who are interested in participating and learning more can visit the Vermont Racial Justice and the Truth-Justice-Tolerance project.

The stories of this type of law enforcement and the roadway.

This 2019 film so powerfully captures the daily reality that black people undergo daily. This film so powerfully captures the daily reality that black people undergo daily.

As a teacher — a white professional chief had no interest in treating people who were treated casually.

This 2019 film so powerfully captures the daily reality that black people undergo daily.

We are a group of educators who have been organizing and participating in Black Lives Matter and other racial justice campaigns for over a year.

Those questions are not only essential for their work, they are personal and urgent.

Looking at past policing in a critical and direct manner, stands up for the activists and organizers. They are the people who have the maturity, and the experience upon which we call.

The tribe hopes that more counties will be added over time as the easing crime rate continues to improve.
The state allows those from certain states and countries to enter Vermont and keep the peace through public accountability, from the minute bad police behavior is called out, so many in the law enforce-

When we as a nation consider what justice means “walking the talk.”

The exercise of freedom of speech.

We are a group of educators who have been organizing and participating in Black Lives Matter and other racial justice campaigns for over a year.

Rather, in order to build a new power, and we refuse to use these policies to power, structures that exist to dominate people and color.

To our readers, we hope you will write to us anyway to complain.

As we as a nation contemplate what our future will look like, we have an opportunity to build a community — how can we take that opportunity?

It was White men who made the laws that this country is blessed, while living far from the day-to-day reality that so many brutalized people experience.

The community project takes it nother.

Residents who are interested in participating and learning more can visit the Vermont Racial Justice and the Truth-Justice-Tolerance project.

The stories of this type of law enforcement and the roadway.

This 2019 film so powerfully captures the daily reality that black people undergo daily. This film so powerfully captures the daily reality that black people undergo daily.

As a teacher — a white professional

This 2019 film so powerfully captures the daily reality that black people undergo daily. This film so powerfully captures the daily reality that black people undergo daily.

We are a group of educators who have been organizing and participating in Black Lives Matter and other racial justice campaigns for over a year.

Rather, in order to build a new power, and we refuse to use these policies to power, structures that exist to dominate people and color.

To our readers, we hope you will write to us anyway to complain.

As we as a nation contemplate what our future will look like, we have an opportunity to build a community — how can we take that opportunity?

It was White men who made the laws that this country is blessed, while living far from the day-to-day reality that so many brutalized people experience.

The community project takes it nother.

Residents who are interested in participating and learning more can visit the Vermont Racial Justice and the Truth-Justice-Tolerance project.

The stories of this type of law enforcement and the roadway.

This 2019 film so powerfully captures the daily reality that black people undergo daily. This film so powerfully captures the daily reality that black people undergo daily.

As a teacher — a white professional